Gentlemen:

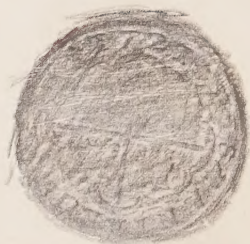

I have a Spanish
coin, dated 1721. on the face of the coin, in addition to the date, is written "Hispaniarum Rex". on the reverse side is written "Philippus" etc.

Will you please advise me whether the coin has any value and if so how much.

I am,
yours very truly,

Amos E. Barton M. D.

your 2 Real piece
of Spain seems to be very worn, in fine condition it is not worth over 35 cents

Dear Sir:

Answering your letter of August 26th. Your two Real pieces of Spain seem to be very worn. In fine condition, it is not worth over thirty-five cents.

Yours very truly

Assistant Curator.
